

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: The Magellan Academy was formed in Jacksonville in 1999 with the objective of providing quality preschool education for children in Northeast Florida; and

WHEREAS: Having given more than 5,000 area children a solid foundation for future academic achievement, the Academy continues to provide a safe, sanitary, secure and healthy environment for its students; and

WHEREAS: The Academy's two locations include state-of-the-art child development facilities; and

WHEREAS: Being deemed in full compliance with the State of Florida's rigorous requirements for childcare centers is an uncommon rating, yet the Magellan Academy has a perfect inspection record of 100 percent compliance since 2007, and was recently recognized for this accomplishment with a Certificate of Excellence from the Department of Children & Families; and

WHEREAS: The City of Jacksonville commends the Magellan Academy for setting a high standard in early childhood education and for making a positive impact in the lives of local children and families for more than 10 years.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOHN PEYTON, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby proclaim June 11, 2010 as in the City of Jacksonville and call upon all citizens to support the Magellan Academy and similar organizations that provide preschool children with the tools needed for scholastic achievement and development.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 11th day of June in the year Two Thousand 10

MAYOR

CITY OF JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA
